

A GREAT CLEARANCE SALE OF $25,000 WORTH OF DRESS GOODS

Including Silk, Wool Goods, and Wash Goods

WE HAVE DECIDED TO QUIT CARRYING DRESS GOODS IN THE PIECE

A crowded store and want of room generally has compelled us to take this action. Our business has grown so rapidly that we cannot properly display the merchandise in all departments that we carry.

We are determined that in whatever lines we show the stock must be complete, and this requires space for display. Our Lace Department, our Glove Department, our Fancy Goods and Notion Departments have all outgrown their present space. To effectively further build up these branches we will dispense with Dress Goods in the piece.

The stock is all brand new and recently to hand, as we had no idea of closing out this department until a few days ago.

A Great Price-Cutting Sale Will Begin on Wednesday, Sept. 4th and as soon as the whole stock has been gone over and re-marked the entire details will be advertised.

As we want quick results to enable us to make the changes in time to take care of our holiday lines, we can promise such marvelous bargains in high grade dress goods materials that should result in the biggest sale ever known in the city of Honolulu.

JORDAN'S

WOMAN ESCAPES DREADFUL OPERATION

How She Was Saved From Surgeon's Knife by Lydia
E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Mogadore, Ohio.—"The first two years I was married I suffered so much from female troubles and bearing down pains that I could not stand on my feet long enough to do my work. The doctor said I would have to undergo an operation, but my husband wanted me to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound first. I took three bottles and it made me well and strong and I avoided a dreadful operation. I now have two fine healthy children, and I cannot say too much about what Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has done for me."—Mrs. LEE MANGES, R. F. D. 10, Mogadore, Ohio.

Why will women take chances with an operation or drag out a sickly, half-hearted existence, missing three-fourths of the joy of living, when they can find health in Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound?

For thirty years it has been the standard remedy for female ills, and has restored the health of thousands of women who have been troubled with such ailments as displacements, inflammation, ulceration, tumors, irregularities, etc.

If you want special advice write to Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co. (confidential) Lynn, Mass. Your letter will be opened, read and answered by a woman and held in strict confidence.

SOLDIER FALLS 30 FEET, FRACTURES SKULL; DIES

(Special by Phone to Star-Bulletin.)
SCHOFIELD BARRACKS, August 29.—Private Walter E. Krause, Troop E, Fifth cavalry, while on patrol duty yesterday morning, fell from the top of an embankment near the target range, a distance of 30 feet, and fractured his skull, dying in the post hospital at 6 o'clock last evening. Funeral services were held at 11:30 o'clock this morning, Chaplain Pruden officiating and the remains were sent to Honolulu for shipment to Milwaukee, Wis., the home of Krause's parents.

STANDARD OIL STORY UNTRUE AS TO MR. KNOX

What amounts to a practical denial of any connection with the Roosevelt-Standard Oil controversy, was made this morning by Secretary of State Knox.

An Associated Press dispatch received here stated that Roosevelt, in an open letter, denies the alleged statement of Secretary Knox that Roosevelt's campaign contribution letters to Corleyou were "written to clear the record."

This story was forwarded by wireless to Secretary Knox by the Associated Press correspondent here, and this morning while unwilling to discuss the situation at any length, the Secretary authorized the following brief statement of his position. He said:

"As I have made no statement concerning correspondence between Mr. Roosevelt and Mr. Corleyou on any subject, and have authorized no one to make a statement for me, you must excuse me from discussing the subject."

"I have reason to believe that this letter is a forgery, and I challenge its production."

"But it is true, and at the time it was well known, that during the Presidential campaign of 1904 I did receive such a contribution from Mr. Archbold for the campaign, in Pennsylvania."

"I was at the time the chairman of the Republican State committee of Pennsylvania and a member of the Republican national committee representing that State. I was at the Republican headquarters in Philadelphia, in full charge of the State campaign, and I was, every week, in New York, in close touch with many phases of the national campaign."

Archbold Gives Up $125,000.

"Mr. John D. Archbold had several interviews with Cornelius N. Bliss, treasurer of the Republican national committee, and with me relative to financial assistance in the campaign."

"Finally we came to an understanding by which Mr. Archbold made a contribution of $125,000, of which $100,000 was to go to Mr. Bliss as treasurer of the Republican national committee for the national Presidential campaign outside of Pennsylvania and $25,000 to be contributed to me as State chairman for the campaign in Pennsylvania."

"In Philadelphia during a discussion of the successorship to Senator Quay, Mr. Flinn offered to Israel W. Durham, a Republican leader in Pennsylvania, and to me $1,000,000 or even $2,000,000 to favor his ambition—and the offer was known to others at the time."

"The offer was declined and we refused to support his candidacy."

"The Governor of Pennsylvania Samuel W. Pennypacker, appointed Philander C. Knox to succeed Mr. Quay. Mr. Knox subsequently was elected by the Legislature for the full term."

"His appointment and election and resignation and appointment to the cabinet occurred with the full knowledge and acquiescence of Mr. Roosevelt."

Flinn Still Covets Toga.

"Mr. Flinn still desires to go to the United States Senate. His friends openly avow his ambition and his activity for Roosevelt and the reforms to which he has recently become a convert are prompted by this desire."

Penrose Loses in Fight.

"When the Senatorial vacancy occurred in 1904 a practically solid Republican delegation in the Assembly from Allegheny county and a large majority from Western Pennsylvania favored my selection to succeed Quay."

"The fact that a selection was made and forced on Penrose demonstrates that he was then, as now, under the domination of Archbold and the interests which turned down my appointment."

"Second, Penrose alleges that I offered $1,000,000 or $2,000,000 to him and to Israel W. Durham—the latter now being dead and unable to testify—to favor my appointment to the Senate."

Thinks He Would Take It.

"Taken in connection with my purported telegram to Archbold, Penrose's allegation disproves itself from several angles."

"First—If Penrose could have sold the senatorship for such a sum, his record as a corruptionist is sufficient evidence that he would have taken the money and delivered the goods."

"Second—The appointment of Knox at the dictation of Archbold, Frick, Cameron and Cassatt proves that Penrose did not have the senatorship in his hands to dispose of."

"Third—The very allegation that I solicited Archbold's support and requested the Standard Oil chief to give orders to his man Penrose in my behalf, indicates that I was wise enough to know how Penrose could be controlled without the necessity of buying him."

"As a matter of fact, I never asked either Penrose or Durham to support me for Senator, and never discussed the matter with them."

POLITICAL NEWS AND NOTES

The Quinn-Pringle quarrel, representing the contentions of the Democrats of Kaimuki will be settled by the holding of another election, according to the decision of the territorial central committee at a meeting held last night.

The committee found that in the matter of the precinct club election neither Quinn or Pringle had observed the rules in making nominations, and a new election was ordered for Sept. 7.

There will be a meeting of the members of the Democratic club of the seventh of the fourth at the residence of J. A. Lawlaw tomorrow evening at 7:30. Election of delegates.

The Democratic club of the Fifth precinct of the Fourth district will hold a meeting at the residence of William Walters, 718 Spencer street, tomorrow evening to nominate delegates to the district and county conventions.

Following his late adventure with the Businessmen's Ticket, John W. H. has returned to the Kula fold. In the Hawaii Honolulu, of which he is editor, he declares that Link McCandless has no chance; that the Home Rulers have none, and that the only salvation of the Hawaiians is to vote for Kaho, who, he declares, will be elected delegate with more votes than ever before.

Named on "Soapbox" Barron's ticket, as candidate for Treasurer, Col. C. J. McCarthy declares that it is the first he has heard of the intended honor and hastens to decline it. While he did not say so, his friends say that Col. McCarthy may be a candidate for Senator.

SEEK DIVORCE WITHIN YEAR OF MARRIAGE

Swift destruction of the "lures" and penalties in the home of Russell J. Martin, of Fort Shafter, bringing a climax to the couple's honeymoon early last fall, was followed today by a new record established in the service of divorce petitions, three being served on the husband and wife inside of twenty-five minutes.

The couple were married July 5, 1911. Two of the petitions were served today on the husband, charging him with deserting his wife in October and failing thereafter to provide her maintenance. The third was a counter petition, served on Lily Martin, charging her with a statutory offense and naming one Jesse Ululhi, of No. 33 North Vineyard street, as co-respondent. The date of the alleged offense is given as August 20, little more than a month from the day on which Mr. and Mrs. Martin became man and wife.

The first petition was filed May 23 by Mrs. Martin. The second, the husband's counter petition, was filed yesterday morning and the third, Mrs. Martin's petition, repeating her former charge of desertion, was filed yesterday afternoon.

U. S. AGENT HERE TO CONDUCT FIGHT ON FRUIT FLY PEST

Among the arrivals on the Manchuria this morning was E. A. Back, representing the Department of Agriculture, who will have charge of the Federal campaign against the fruit fly in Hawaii. Soon after leaving the ship Mr. Back was joined by Dr. Marshall, First Assistant Chief of the Department, who arrived here yesterday to look over conditions here. With Albert Waterhouse, member of the Territorial Board of Agriculture and Forestry, the two officials made a tour about the outlying fruit districts this morning.

Women are to vote in the New York state primaries of the progressive party and are to be sent as delegates to the state convention. State Chairman Hotchkiss so instructed county chairmen.

Attorney Eugene Aju appears as the wife's attorney in filing the first petition, and T. M. Harrison filed her second paper. Attorney Clem Quinn represents the husband.

Judge Whitney today took cognizance of Mrs. Martin's second petition and has issued an order to the husband, ordering him to appear in Court Saturday morning to show cause why he should not be divorced from her and compelled to pay costs and alimony.
